MINOR MENTION.

—Dr. Butt does crown and bridge work, also metal and vulcanite plates.

—M. A. Webb, of Wellfleet, was in town yesterday making final proof on his homestead.

—A. D. Buckworth has been confined to the house for a week past with sciatic rheumatism.

—Smoke the "Royal Sport" cigar, manufactured by A. D. Wright, of this city. The best five-cent cigar on the market.

—The net receipts of the minstrel show Thursday evening were $100. This sum will be expended in uniforms for the high school cadets.

—When you buy potatoes be sure to get the best. A car-load of fine Utah potatoes just received at McDonald's Grocery.

—Voorhes Lucas, physician and surgeon, office, City Pharmacy.

—C. F. Scharmann has secured the local agency of the Standard Accident Insurance Co., and solicits the business of railroad men and others.

—In a few days Dr. Butt will be fully settled in his office in McDonald's Block, where he will be pleased to see all who need dental work.

—The next and greatest local event is the Engineer's May Party. It will be worthy the patronage of a large attendance and this it will undoubtedly receive.

—Wanted—cattle and horses to pasture, three miles from town; good pasture, plenty of water. Terms low to suit the hard times.
J. M. CARESS.
At Coledge place.

—Arbor Day was observed to some extent yesterday, though a majority of our people had already planted their trees. Several of the schools held exercises appropriate of the day.

—J. C. Orr is tearing down the old Minshall property on west Fifth street and will erect a neat five-room cottage on the site. Saml. Adams has the contract for building the house.

—J. D. Hawkins, of Wellfleet, transacted business in town yesterday. He is preparing to irrigate about fifty acres of land on the Medicine creek bottom and thus be assured a crop.

—The concert to be given by Prof. Bartling's orchestra prior to the opening march of the May Party will be a musical treat. Of this there is no doubt, as the members, ten in number, are all first-class musicians.

—In the gift presentation last Friday night Harry Dixon was awarded the bicycle, C. S. Clinton a gold watch, John Delay a music box and Henry Lents a set of books. The dance given in connection with the affair was well patronized.

—Several North Platte teachers will attend the meeting of the Western Nebraska Educational Association to be held at Sidney on Friday and Saturday of this week. Miss Peckham will read a paper and Prof. Barber will conduct the discussions relating to high school questions.

—The Farmers and Merchants' Irrigation Co., of Dawson county, has increased its capital stock to $100,000. The ditch and main laterals of this company exceed eighty-two miles in length. Kittell & Benson, of this city, are the engineers in charge of the work.

—John Federhoof has purchased the Snelling property on east Fifth street. We did not learn the consideration.

—The Y. M. C. A. glee club accompanied the debaters to Maxwell Saturday evening and furnished music for the entertainment given there.

—Utah potatoes are the best seed potatoes. Get them at Charles McDonald, Grocer.

—J. F. Fillion received two bicycles by express this morning. The tandem he ordered will be here in a week or so.

—Mrs. H. C. Nesbitt will probably arrive home this week. She has been delayed by reason of the illness of her daughter, who is suffering from spine trouble.

—At Unitarian hall, Monday, April 29th, Mrs. Sayre will open a school for instruction of young children.

—Max Beer has purchased of J. Q. Thacker eighty-three acres of the latter's timber claim in section 34-14-32, the consideration being $600.

—The lady solicitors have secured about ten columns of advertising for the woman's edition of THE TRIBUNE. This is about five times the amount men solicitors could have secured.

—How about those bicycle races we were promised for May? Will they come off, or has the local club not yet fully recovered from the meet of last fall and the dance of more recent date.

—The heavy frost Sunday night did some damage to plum trees which were out in bloom. Several citizens took the precaution to cover their trees with sheets, and thus thwarted Jack Frost.

—The young men who went to Maxwell to debate the silver question with several men of that village did not win a decision from the judges, though they seem to think they were entitled to it.

—C. C. Hawkins was in from his farm yesterday. He has planted thirty acres of corn and will plant 500 acres more provided it rains in time; if not he will hang his plows and cultivators on the willows and spend the summer fishing.

—The Chappell Register says: An inspector dropped in on Postmaster Galvin at Big Springs last week and found him short $200 in his accounts. The office was turned over to the bondsmen. Galvin had been postmaster about four months.

—A large part of the seed grain received by the relief commissions of Lincoln, Logan and McPherson counties has been stored in the Iddings' elevator and from there distributed to the farmers. This has made things rather lively around Mr. Iddings' yards.

—W. T. Bogue, who was married at Pittsfield, Vermont, two weeks ago to-day, returned home Sunday morning. His wife was taken sick with pneumonia a few days after the wedding, and though convalescing was not able to accompany him home at the time he left. She will arrive here just as soon as her health will permit her to make the trip.

—Deputy Kelher returned the latter part of the week from the south part of the county having in charge a fellow named Walbach, who is charged with stealing a horse, saddle and bridle from Henry Fogel, of Hershey. The prisoner had a hearing Saturday before Justice Sullivan, plead guilty and for want of bonds was sent to jail to await sentence by the district court.

—The oldest, largest and most complete coffee roasting establishments in the world are owned by Dwinell, Wright & Co. Their brands of BOSTON ROASTED COFFEES are famed world-wide for their ABSOLUTE UNIFORMITY, both in style and cup qualities, and their remarkable HIGH GRADE EXCELLENCE. For sale by Chas. McDonald, Grocer.

—In view of the largely increasing number of tramps and the insolence they display when begging from house to house, it has been suggested that the worst looking hoboes be corralled by the police and put to work on the streets. This plan was attempted several years ago, but so far as getting work out of the fellows, it was not a great success. However, if it was known along the line of the U. P. that North Platte had a "chain gang" it would have a tendency to keep the travelers from loafing with in the city limits.

Notice.

All persons interested in the formation of a musical association to consist of vocal and orchestral parts are requested to meet at the guild house in the Episcopal church yard on Thursday evening, April 25th, at eight o'clock sharp. The purpose of this meeting is to form an association that will prove of mutual benefit. A full attendance of vocalists and musicians is desired.
THE COMMITTEE.

—The ladies of the Lutheran church will give an icecream social to-night at the residence of A. O. Kocken. The public is cordially invited.

—Judge Neville, Reporter Williams and Attorney Grimes went to Sidney this morning, where a term of district court will be held this week.

—M. C. Lindsay was kicked on the leg by a horse Friday, inflicting a serious wound, and since which time he has been confined to the house.

—T. D. Cotton is making preparations to ship a pair of young Jersey cattle to J. Quincy Thacker, in Texas, with Geo. R. Hammond's portable property.

—Miss Frankie Bristol was the arranger of the musical programme at the Catholic social last week, and has received many words of commendation therefor.

—The North Platte Land and Water Co. is seeding 400 acres to alfalfa this spring. Many farmers along the ditch are increasing their acreage of this very profitable crop.

—Onions will be one of the leading vegetable crops grown by the farmers on the old ditch this season. A number of farmers have put in from one to four acres each. They are an excellent paving crop.

—A gentleman who is in a position to know informs the writer that the crop raised along the ditch, barring hail, will be nearly twice that of any previous year. This means good trade for North Platte this fall.

—Jones' friends bought Charley Ell's horse, phaeton and harness Monday evening, and made him a present of the same. It is only a few months ago that he met with a similar experience. The luck of a certain class of people has passed into a proverb.

—P. B. Gavin received on last Friday, a draft for $293.90 from the Chamber of Commerce, of Raleigh, North Carolina, the same being a donation for the drouth sufferers in this locality. The money has been invested in seed corn for distribution.—Wallace Herald.

—Dr. Homer B. Hatch, who recently graduated from a Chicago medical college, has returned to North Platte and we believe has concluded to locate here. It is likely he will form a partnership with Dr. F. M. Somers.

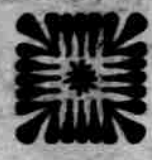

—M. H. Douglas has made a machine with which to spray his fruit trees, thus destroying the insects which attack the bloom and also the bark. The decoction he uses is a weak solution of vitriol and lime. He has sprayed the trees and already finds an improvement in them.

—D. A. Baker will probably put in a irrigating pump with which to water his farm west of town. There is on Mr. B's land a lake covering about two acres of ground which is fed by springs, and from this lake he will get his water supply. The pump which Mr. B. will put in throws 1250 gallons of water per minute and will be operated by horse power.

—It makes little difference to "Buck" Sawyer whether a drunk possesses powers of locomotion or not, as he has adopted a new "hurry up" wagon in the shape of a push cart. Last Saturday evening he came trundling up to the jail Tommy Dixon, of Sutherland, who was apparently afflicted with something similar to locomotor ataxia, superinduced by an overdose of spiritus fermenti.

—A gentleman living out in the extreme northeast part of this county, brought into Sheriff Miller's office yesterday specimens of the bones of some mammoth long since extinct, which he exhumed on his place in Harrison precinct, in the Sand creek valley. From the appearance of the various portions of the anatomy of this burly bisonoph he must have been a Lincoln county voter long before the era of Buffalo Bill and Wash Hinman. One rib eight feet and four inches in length was disinterred, as were sections of the back-bone, shoulder-blade, knee-caps, etc. The display is a very interesting one, and will repay an investigation by even the least curious, while to those interested in natural history or geology it presents a great opportunity for investigation and research. The gentleman making these discoveries has a wagon-box about two-thirds full of these specimens, some of which have been turned out by a cultivator, while a plowshare has unearthed others. He will dig deeper and make a more thorough search in the hope of finding the head and jaws of one of these antediluvian animals.

Miss Lizzie Cannon, of Omaha has been visiting North Platte friends for several days. She returns home the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bowen, of Plant precinct, returned Saturday morning from Ohio, where they had been visiting since the early part of January.

Mrs. J. E. Baker went east on No. 4 Saturday morning for a ten days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Hughes, who is living near Juniata, Neb.

Capt. R. E. Haskell, of the Loup cattle country, was in the city renewing acquaintanceship with his numerous old friends. In this connection he made THE TRIBUNE a pleasant and profitable call.

RAILWAY RESUME.

Gus Norton is enjoying a visit from his brother, who resides in Omaha.

Leo Hart made a trip to Omaha Friday night, returning home Monday morning.

Ed. Weeks will take a ten day lay-off this week and spend the time in Omaha.

The office of the division foreman has been repaired and presents a very neat appearance.

W. L. Park received last week several thousand willow cuttings which he will plant around his orchard for a wind-break.

Boiler-maker John Foster, who had been laid up with rheumatism for about six weeks, has resumed his old post in the round-house.

Conductor Woodmansee has been hit hard by the bicycle craze and now devotes his time while at this end of the run to riding the wheel.

Engine 685 comes out of the shops to-day, and the 826 and 694 will be out the latter part of the week, after having received a general overhauling.

U. P. Watchman Lloyd reports last Friday the worst day of the season for hoboes and he was busy all day driving them off the company's property.

Division master mechanic Manning spent Saturday around the shops here and seemed well pleased with the manner in which the work was being conducted.

Tilman Casey left Sunday night for Pocatello, where he was sent to fill a position as round-house machinist. Four machinists have also been sent from Omaha to that point.

With the building of the new smoke-stacks, now being put on all engines, and the extra pipe work in the round-house, the sheet iron gang is kept very busy and are working nearly every Saturday in order to keep even with their work.

A pipe line is being laid between the round-house and the big ice-house for the purpose of furnishing water to wash the ice and also to provide fire protection. Messrs. Finney, Morgan, Aue and Davis are working on the trench.
